ADVISORY

Subject: Temporary Moratorium on Certain DPCP Activities

To the Public:

In light of ongoing efforts to strengthen the implementation of the Data Privacy Competency Program (DPCP), and in response to various queries and clarifications received, the National Privacy Commission hereby issues a temporary moratorium on the processing of licenses and conduct of activities under the Program.

This includes:

- Acceptance and processing of new applications for licenses to training providers; and
- Implementation of existing licenses, including the conduct of approved training activities.

The moratorium is intended to support the orderly development of the Implementing Guidelines for NPC Circular No. 2023-02. This measure ensures alignment with forthcoming standards and safeguards the integrity of the Program as it transitions to full operationalization.

This moratorium shall remain in effect until formally lifted by the Commission, upon the issuance of the finalized Implementing Guidelines.

We thank you for your continued understanding and cooperation.

For your information and guidance.
